

Lincoln County Leader.

VOLUME 24

TOLEDO, LINCOLN COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, AUGUST 25th, 1916

NUMBER 27

NEWPORT

Judge Wolverton of the Federal Court of Portland, came in Friday to spend his vacation at Newport. The Judge had been holding court in New York. He is registered at the Abbey.

C. W. James, one of the assistant Secretaries of the United States Senate, Washington, D. C., has come to spend his vacation with his family who live at Newport. Mr. James was superintendent of the Penitentiary for nine years under Governors West and Chamberlain.

D. W. Williamson and his brother, T. B., and their families from Corvallis came over to spend a couple of weeks at Oregon's popular resort. They are delighted with Newport with its varied and attractive surroundings. Mr. Williams is a member of the city council at Corvallis and a candidate for county commissioner on the Republican ticket. His motto is, if he should be elected, that every dollar expended by the County Court for County purposes, shall represent an equal amount of benefit; will give due consideration to grievances regardless of political affiliations or station in life. In the matter of building county roads, either with crushed rock or other material, I believe in the principal of pay as you go, issue no bonds and keep out of debt.

Mrs. J. B. Horner and her two daughters and her mother, Mrs. E. Skipton, came in Friday and went to Waldport, from there they will go to Wheelock Falls and Drift Creek, where Prof. Horner has been stopping for a week getting ready and fixing camp for the family when they arrive. He had been catching some fine mountain trout in Drift Creek which is fine sport. This is one of the finest streams in the country in which to catch mountain trout. This is the old hunting and fishing grounds of the Alsea Indians. The mountains here rise three or four thousand feet and are covered with a heavy growth of stand-timber. Here the roar of the cataracts may be heard as the water flows over the many rocky falls and the green mountains as they rise and seem to lean against the blue sky, makes the most beautiful found in the Coast Range of mountains. Here Mr. Horner being of a literary turn of mind can associate with the muses and write some of his most beautiful thoughts. Here the redman sat and communicated with the Great Spirit and here, no doubt in ages past he chanted the death song, gave the war whoop, dug up the tomahawk and went on the warpath to kill and scalp his enemies. Here in this solitude you can study nature in all her beauty and grandeur. This is an interesting country, an inspiration.

The Misses Montgomery, Elsie and Lottie, nieces of Mrs. J. H. Blair, came in from Prinnville to spend a week at the sea-shore. They motored by way of northern California, one of the girls driving. These young ladies are teachers in the public school, bought the Ford with their own money, drove the car themselves and had their own camping outfit and traveled at small expense. These young ladies will visit friends in the Valley after which they will return to their home at Prinnville.

Tuesday at the Odd Fellows Hall at the close of the Rebekah meeting, H. D. Blakely and Mrs. Mary Batchman, with a few invited friends, were united in marriage, Rev. B. C. Black, pastor of the Baptist Church officiating. The happy couple, after spending a few days at the seashore, will take up their residence at Grants Pass. Their many friends wish them happiness and prosperity through life.

Uncle Sam Houghten, while fishing on Lee William's wharf, lost his balance and fell into the bay, going clear under. He came up and was fished out by Frank Fogarty and August Blatter. Aside from a little fun for the bystanders, no harm was done. He is not the first man that has felled in the bay. Though a G. A. R. man he was a little scared. He clung to the piling like a starfish, his eyes bugged out like a scared rabbit and he trembled like an aspen leaf. Moral, don't lean too far out from the wharf.

The Sunday excursion train brought in over two hundred passengers. The weather continues fine and the beaches are thronged with people. The Walker band cheers the crowds with its splendid music, "Music" it is said, "hath charms to sooth the savage breast". A great many prominent ministers are taking their vacation at Newport among them we note, Rev. Haines, Baptist minister of McMinnville and Rev. Leech, Methodist pastor of the First Methodist Church at Corvallis, and Rev. Taylor of Albany.

People who saw and heard Chas. Evens Hughes, candidate for President, in Portland, say that he is a great man and that he received such an ovation from the people of Portland as no other citizen has ever received. Over 12,000 people were to hear him in the great auditorium and thousands had to be turned away for want of room. He will if elected, and I think he will, make a great President. His speeches sound like a man of deep thought and a statesman and not like the effusions of a college or university professor.

LITTLE ELK

Pretty cold nights these, for summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Loudon of Woodburn, Ore., are visiting friends and relatives here for a week or so.

Mrs. Dr. Griff and party of friends of Portland are having an outing and vacation on Little Elk for the past few days, returned home Tuesday—his son, Richard will stay with friends in Portland while H. O. is away.

Mr. Boynton is leaving Mr. Moss in charge of his place.

Mr. South of Dallas has bought 80 acres of land on Miller Creek, a tributary to Little Elk and is slashing and clearing and getting ready to build. Mr. South says Little Elk is good enough for him.

Mr. Rothrock is slashing brush for Mr. Johnson on the old Bretherson place. We are glad to see Mr. Johnson improving this property as it can be made one of the best ranches in this part of the county.

There was quite a bunch of Little Elkers went to Newport on last Sunday's excursion, all went for a good time and from the reports they had it.

The clatter of the selfbinder is being heard in this vicinity and soon the hum of the thresher will be heard. Oh! but there is no joy so joyful as the joy of farm life.

There was a farewell party at H. O. Boynton's last Saturday evening as Hal is going away. We are sorry to lose him as he is very public spirited and believed in boosting his community, Lincoln County and Oregon, but we long for the time when Hal will come back and help us boost. This party was given to show our friendship and to let Hal know he was appreciated. There were 50 friends and neighbors from Eddyville and Little Elk present—so good luck Hal, is the wish of all.

Hurrah for the Eddyville fair. As the time draws nearer the more enthusiasm is shown and all communities and every one else is working to make the Eddyville fair a success—and when all are interested it is sure to be a success. There will be a Better Baby contest in connection with this fair this year, contest will be held under the rules of the Woman's Home Companion.

The Better Babies contest is a popular yet scientific movement to insure better babies and a better race. It consists of entering, examining and awarding prizes to children of five years or less on exactly the same basic principals that are applied to live stock shows—mere beauty does not count—physical and mental development only are considered.

The Better Babies contest insures a better race of Americans because it teaches parents how to improve the physical condition of children already born and to protect those yet unborn. It arouses interest in the conservation of child life and health and in all forms of child welfare. It forges a connecting link between parents and teachers—between the home and the scientific study of the community.

So parents wishing to enter their babies in this contest, send their name and age to S. T. Loudon, Eddyville, and they will be entered. There will be two medals awarded, one to the champion boy and one to the champion girl and there will be diplomas awarded also, so send in the name and age of your baby and help to make this part of the fair a success. The ages of babies in this contest will be from six months to three years. There will be a doctor in attendance and a good warm room for the babies—no baby will be barred of the above age.

There will be amusements for old and young all day long, no idle moments, so come and spend the day—where?—at Eddyville—when? Oct. 11, 1916.

ORTON

Harvest time is here again.

The Dime theatre is making arrangements to run the Charlie Chapin funny reels, the first installment of which will probably be run Saturday night.

Go to the Water Front Market for your fresh Yaquina Bay Salmon. The Chinooks are now running and I am getting some fine fish.

J. L. Demitt, Prop.

A. T. Peterson brought in a new 1917 model Ford last Sunday and sold the same yesterday to Ralph Pepin. Mr. Pepin having sold his car to Brinton Bryant, Mr. Peterson went to Portland again yesterday for a new car.

PORT DREDGE

LINCOLN SOLD

The port dredger Lincoln, built by the Port of Toledo some five or six years ago, has been sold to the Gardiner Mill Co., of Gardiner, Oregon, for the sum of $5500.00. O. P. Hensdale manager of the company making the purchase.

The dredge is being gotten ready for sea and it will be some time before it leaves the bay. The Company expects to send their own tug here to tow it down the coast.

Roy Walker and Bob Mann expect to remain with the dredge for a time and will have charge of the operation of the same.

The dredge has finished its usefulness to the local Port having finished the work for which it was built.

SILETZ INDIAN

FAIR ATTRACTS

Today is the last day of the Siletz Indian Fair and will mark the completion of another successful fair. President Walter Hall and the other members of the fair board have worked hard to see that all visitors were royally entertained while at the fair, and their labors have not been in vain. The Indian drama, "Hiawatha" is one of the pleasing features, and much credit is due Mr. R. R. DePoe, for the successful staging of this intricate play.

Concerts daily by the Grand Ronde Indian band have lent much of the enjoyment of the fair.

The Feather and other dances staged by the Indians are a wonder to all and never fail to attract a crowd. The Indian curios, bead and basket work are marvels in the work of art, while the large corn, pumpkins, spuds, etc., attest that the Indian is also there with the goods when it comes to the White Man's art.

A good attendance has been had from Toledo, Newport and all parts of the county as well as a great many from the Valley.

CHURCH NOTES

The Special Meetings at the M. E. Church closed with Sunday night's service. A large congregation was present.

A series of four Sunday evening sermons on "Character Types", as interpreted by great authors, will begin Sunday August 27. Sermon topics for next Sunday:

Morning service, "Flung out the Life-line; evening, "Our dual Nature," the type—"Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde"

Mr. Hardesty who has visited the Samoan Islands, talked with the natives and seen the grave of Robert Louis Stevenson, the author, has been asked to give a short introductory talk.

The social given by the ladies of the Church Tuesday was well patronized.

Choir practice will be held at the church this week.

The season for Crawfords and Elbertas will be short—the extreme hot weather ripening them unusually fast.

If you can't come and select them, phone your order, we will send you fine Fruit.

P. Frederick.

A large number of people from this vicinity, some 31 in all, went to Newport on a picnic last Sunday. Those going were S. E. Roff and wife, J. H. Sugg and family, Miss Wirt, Miss Sugg, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Boeckman, Mr. Hess and family, Miss Perry, Miss Griel, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nelson, Butler Bros., Mrs. Mork, R. W. and R. J. Wollas and family, G. W. Byers and family, and Mrs. Wadsworth and daughter. Several of the party autoed to the lighthouse.
